

ALL IN ONE : THE NEW VALEO SUPERKIT RANGE

Valeo Service - Saint Denis - July 2018 - Valeo The Thermal Systems specialist fulfills its commitment to continuously expand its coverage and answer market needs by launching a range of 200 superkit references. With a high standardization, this range – composed of timing belt and water-pump kits - has an exceptional 95 % coverage rate in Europe.

Valeo is the global Thermal Systems Specialist with more than 60 years of experience and provides water pumps whose range and competitive offer have been recognized on the Aftermarket for 15 years.

Today the market trend shows an increase of the timing belt kits (timing belt, tensioner and idler) with water pumps, in comparison to water pumps only. Indeed, customers are more and more shifting to kitting offers and Valeo Service has quickly answered this need by launching this Superkit range.

Valeo timing belt and water pump kits have been developed with the customer daily routine in mind.

Making workshops operations easier is the core of Valeo Service We Care 4 You - Trust the Specialist strategy. The range features several benefits for customers:

- . More than 90% of coverage of the European carpark
- . O.E. quality timing Belts
- . Stock optimization as only 1 reference to store instead of 4 minimum
- . Better productivity thanks to a comprehensive Kit
- . Higher efficiency of the orders management
- . A 2-year warranty

This range – in addition to answering customers and market needs – benefits from the knowledge and expertise of Valeo, whose brand awareness is internationally recognized. Actually, Superkits are Valeo branded and include notably O.E. quality timing belts assuring thus a higher resistance and a longer lifetime preventing from engine breakdown.

Valeo Superkit offer covers all European fast-movers, for example: Volkswagen Golf VI (2008) ; Volkswagen Golf V (2004) ; Renault Clio III (2005) ; Fiat Panda (2003) ; Citroën C3 I (2002) ; Ford Focus (1998) ; Ford Fiesta VI (2008) ; Citroën C4 II (2010) ; Volkswagen Golf IV (1997) ; Audi A3 (2013)
